The 30 players that play this time in Los Tiburones are Anoide Sardiñas, Edenis Fernández, Andrés Sánchez, José E. Paul Pino, Yasmany López, Orlando Madrigal, Sandor Luis González, Yaroski López, Orisvel Leiva, Ernesto Duanes, Daniel Lima, Tomás Cruz, Alexey Núñez, Milton Valdez, Dairon Pérez, Yuniur Manuel Hernández, Jesús Rodríguez, Dagoberto A. González, Javier Otero, Yuniex Romero, Asmel Núñez. Aníbal Álvarez La Pera, Joan Carlos Casola, Julio Noy, Alain Cervantes, Yasmani Tartabull, Sander Fernández, Angel Rodríguez, Yaiko Picallo, Gerardo Rodríguez. The technical director José Yulier Herranz announced the probable eleven for this first commitment, which will have at the door to Sardiñas and on the defensive line to López, Sandor, Orisbel and Madrigal. In the midfield will be Jesus, Aníbal Duane and as Yans Carlos and Yasmel, while Picallo will be located at the tip.

For this first part of the calendar, Avilanians will not be able to depend on the services of Sander Keko Fernández or Tomás Cruz, who are currently working in a Caribbean league.

The Cuban Football League has been divided into two zones of eight teams each and the first four will advance to the next round, who will then be in a “all against all” contest, from which the two teams that will discuss the scepter will come out.
