We invite you to talk with our government in this way in which your public opinion will be made public, essential to transform our social system.

The entities will give an express response to their opinion through commentes as well, or they will contact you by email.

Remember:

Show respect for the criteria in your comments.

Do not offend, or use vulgar phrases and / or obscene words.

We will reserve the right to moderate those comments that do not comply with these civic rules.

If you do not want your comments to be public, you can contact the Provincial Government's Office of Population Assistance through the Buzón de opiniones.
